Barclay Restoration

In developing plans to restore the InterContinental New York Barclay to its early 20th century splendor, we chose to convey a feeling of discreet elegance, reminiscent of a Park Avenue home. When tasked with selecting a theme and design for the bar, the choice was obvious. One spirit connects the colorful history of our city with that of our hotel and the glorious Cocktail Age in which it was born:
GIN

TONIC WATER 8

Gin Parlour House Cold-Brewed Tonic

A blend of pink peppercorns, mace and grains of paradise are toasted until aromatic and then cold-brewed along with cucumber and lemongrass. This infusion is combined with our special agave-quinine syrup and dispensed via soda syphon

Boylan Heritage

Tight bubbles, with quinine and sweet orange zest on the nose. Crisp, with a pleasant dry lemongrass and bitter orange finish

Fever-Tree

Clean and fresh with a citrus and aromatic hint of quinine. Very soft with a pleasant bitterness

Fever-Tree Light

Delicate and crisp. Perfect for a low-calorie Gin & Tonic

Jack Rudy Small Batch Tonic

A backbone of quinine, culled from the cinchona tree, with a mix of botanicals, and then sweetened with real cane sugar

Ledger's Tonic & Licorice

Delicate quinine notes balanced nicely by a touch of licorice root. Sweetened with Stevia for a tonic light on its toes

Q Tonic

Quite dry, clean and crisp, with a quick sharpness and a gently rounded sweetness that is added by a judicious amount of agave
